

Kendra Dickson Hudson

Wk 251 445-9374

EDUCATION

Master of Science Degree, Communication Science and Disorders-Speech Pathology, 1990

University of Montevallo, Montevallo, AL

Bachelor of Science Degree, Communication Science and Disorders-Speech Pathology, 1989

University of Montevallo, Montevallo, AL

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Instructor in Speech Pathology, 2017-present

University of South Alabama

- provides supervision and assessment of graduate students enrolled in the on-campus practicum;
- team-teaches in graduate and undergraduate courses
- organizes off-campus screenings.
- serves on departmental, college, and university committees
- course master for SLP 596, SLP 597, and SLP 598

Speech Pathology Clinic Coordinator, 2016 to present

University of South Alabama, Speech and Hearing Center

- Plans and assigns on campus practicums
- Schedules diagnostic appointments for on campus clinic
- Secures clinical placements off campus
- Directs student clinicians in all domains of professional clinical practice;
- Assesses student learning and performance in clinical practicums
- Maintains students clinical clock hours in TYPHON
- Initiates and services community partnerships
- Identifies and secures clinical sites and/or clinical partnerships
- Communicates to faculty and program director on student and clinical curriculum information
- Serves as university liaison in community and/or professional activities
- Advises students on academic, professional and/or personal issues while providing referrals when appropriate
- Upholds and enforces student and faculty handbook policies and university policies/procedures

Speech Pathologist, 1996-2001

Mobile County Public School System, Mobile, AL

- Provided speech /language screening, diagnostic and therapy services for students
- Collaboration with Special Education personnel in determining appropriate placement and services for referred students
- Served on school committees
- Served as Local Education Agency representative for the referral and eligibility process

Speech Pathologist. 1992-1996

Rankin County Public Schools, Brandon, MS

- Provided speech /language screening, diagnostic and therapy services for students.
- Collaboration with Special Education personnel in determining appropriate placement and services for referred students
- Served on school committees.

Speech Pathologist, 1990-1992

Jefferson County Public School System, Birmingham, AL

- Responsible for providing speech /language screening, diagnostic and therapy services for students
- Collaboration with Special Education personnel in determining appropriate placement and services for referred students.
- Served on school committees.

PUBLICATIONS

- “Providing Aphasia Therapy Across Health Care Settings: Clinical Simulation in the Academic Classroom”, Perspectives of the ASHA Special Interest Groups, Vol. 6 Issue 3.

PRESENTATIONS

- “Providing Aphasia Therapy Across Healthcare Settings: Clinical Simulation in the Academic Classroom”, 2017 Southeastern University Clinical Educators Conference, Athens, GA
- “SLP Clinical Supervisor Training”, 2019 Speech and Hearing Association (SHAA) Conference, Birmingham, AL
- “The New SEC: Supervision Education Course Developed by Alabama Clinical Educators”, 2019 American Speech Hearing Association (ASHA), Orlando, FL
- “Providing Aphasia Therapy Across Healthcare Settings: Clinical Simulation in the Academic Classroom.”, 2019 American Speech-Language-Hearing Association Convention, Orlando, FL

LICENSE AND CERTIFICATION

- Speech Pathology License
Alabama Board of Examiners in Speech Pathology and Audiology
January 1, 2002 - current
- Certificate of Clinical Competence-Speech Pathology
American Speech-Language Hearing Association
October 1991 - current

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Speech-Language Hearing Association
- Speech Hearing Association of Alabama
- Bay Area Speech Hearing Association
- Alpha Eta Honor Society
College of Allied Health Professions
University of South Alabama